UPCOMING EXHIBIT

Decked Out: Rolling On - Skate Park Anniversary Show

Now through June 18th 2016

A Skateboard Deck Art and Photography Show. The exhibit celebrates the third anniversary of the Fremont Skate Park in Central Park, Fremont, and showcases the blending of artistry and sport through deck design. Since the beginning of skateboarding, skaters have decorated and customized their boards to reflect their personality and individuality. The resulting artworks reflect trends in contemporary art and culture.

Watermarks - California Watercolor Association Signature Exhibit

The CWA, a prominent watermedia organization, is the one of the largest and most active in the country. CWA's mission is to create, foster, and sustain artistic growth and interest in watermedia. These goals are accomplished through our community outreach program, which includes educational programs for artists of all ages and all levels, workshops, public exhibitions, and scholarship programs. CWA members include professional artists, teachers, and students with a compelling interest in painting.

July 1st to August 13th 2016
Reception: Saturday, July 9th, 4 to 6 pm
Steve Leitner and the Newark Saxophone Quartet will be performing at the reception.

APRIL PROGRAM

Our Member, Adrian Dedic, showed us the many types of printmaking processes she uses in her home studio. She explained the planning and steps needed to create an etching, the special tools she uses to hand carve her wood blocks, and how she prints various monotypes and intaglios using her printing press. We were fascinated and impressed!

MAY PROGRAM

We had a wonderful visit to the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts (YBCA) in San Francisco. Our Docent guided us through Christian L. Frock's exhibit "Take This Hammer: Art + Media Activism." We saw how our diverse Bay Area artists create unique ways to express and protest for social, economic, and political changes. A very thought provoking exhibit!

Join us on more trips and get to know more members. Remember to check out our virtual scrapbook for more pictures, updated by our historian Jurek Zarzycki.

Scholarship Winners

Olive Hyde Art Guild Awards Annual Art Scholarships

Olive Hyde Art Guild announced three winners of its' annual scholarship competition during a reception Friday, May 13. Chairmen Karen Dobmeier and Adrianne Dedic explained that the winning students were selected based on their portfolios of work, must have been accepted at a college or University and have plans to pursue education in the field of art. This year 9 students from Fremont high schools submitted work for consideration by the Guild.

Three guild members served as jurors to determine the winners. Juror Patricia Moran, currently teaching at Evergreen Valley College in San Jose, has taught painting, drawing and color classes at San Jose State Univ., Ohlone College, and College of San Mateo. Her work is held in public collections, such as the Kaiser Permanent Clinic in Fremont. and the Santa Clara Medical Center in Santa Clara. Juror Nancy Benton, a F.U.S.D. high school history teacher, also teaches art classes for adults at the Fremont Art Association. Currently, she has work on exhibit at the Harrington Gallery in Pleasanton. Juror Michael Wertz, a commercial artist from Oakland, with many notable clients including The Exploratorium, DeYoung Museum, The New York Times, and Random House, has also had his work featured at San Francisco Museum of Modern Art. He has also authored and illustrated many children's books. A recognized Illustrator, he has recently been named as the Assistant Chairman of the Illustration Department at the California College of the Arts.

Minjun Kim from Irvington High School and recipient of the $2,000 first place award plans to attend the PrattMWP College of Art and Design in Utica, NY. In addition to his artistic talents, Minjun is also an accomplished musician and plays regularly with the Silicon Valley Symphony Orchestra. His volunteer efforts have earned him Certificates of Recognition from the California State Senate, the City of Milpitas, and Congressional Recognition from Mike Honda. Minjun has volunteered to assist in fund raising for a Cambodian water well project, support for earthquake relief in Nepal, and support for kids who need food in Malawi. He has also given his time as a teaching assistant, and to help children with special needs. At Pratt, Minjun plans to major in Communications Design.

Two Honorable Mention Awards for $1,000 each were also presented. Allison Du from American High School, plans to attend Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut. Allison is the founder & president of Arttain a school club that has taught art to over 160 children in the Tri Cities area. She is also the founder & captain of her school's speech team, and the co-founder and art editor-in-chief of Vignettes, an art and literary magazine for student work at American High. At Yale, Allison plans to major in Ethics, Politics & Economics. Allison's art teacher, Megan Olson, states that Allison's art work is "beautiful and evocative."

Agnes Lo, the second Honorable Mention Award winner of $1,000, is a Mission High School graduating senior. Agnes plans to attend the University of Chicago in Chicago, Illinois where she plans to major in Economics and minor in Environmental Studies. Agnes's volunteer activities include tutoring students learning Spanish, painting rooms in a homeless shelter, and participating in fundraising for Relay for Life. As a completive high school diver, Allison has participated in and received awards in North Coast Sectionals and in State competitions. She competes nationally as a member of the Stanford Diving Club.

In addition to the student scholarship awards, a $500 stipend for classroom art supplies, has been awarded to the art teacher, Tully Mintey, of the first place winner from Irvington High School.

President's Message

This is my last Message as President and it has been a wonderful experience. I was very reluctant to be president. I had only been a member of the Guild for a little over a year and I was pretty nervous about it. But everyone would tell me what I needed to be doing and thinking about and it turned out fine. I have made some new friends and enjoyed myself while serving the community. We are fortunate that Vimal Advani volunteered to be President this next year. She has been a longtime member and artist and even served as President in the past. Vimal already has brought some new people to be on the Board. The new officers will be installed at the annual dinner at Papillon on June 22. It will be a fun evening . There is still time to get your reservation in!

Karen Dobmeier reported at the June Board meeting this past week that she had attended the presentation of the scholarships and was really impressed with how beautifully it went. The judges were incorporated into the event and it made it more special for the Guild, the judges, and the winners. She mentioned that over the years the Guild has given a total of over $50,000 in scholarships.

At the same Board meeting, the Guild gave the City money to be used toward adding signage on the building to help identify it from Washington Blvd.

Please join me in welcoming Vimal Advani, your new Guild President and the new Board for 2016-2017. I know Vimal will be a wonderful President. A big thank you to you all for your help, support and friendship. I look forward to seeing you at artists' receptions. Remember that the next reception for the California Watercolor Association is on a Saturday -- July 9 from 4 to 6 pm. I'll see you there!
