“My OHAG Job” – By Business Membership Chair, Pat Finn

I am the Business Chairperson for the past few years. Each year I send a letter to all our Business Members asking if they care to renew their membership. We have very loyal members and they renew year after year. Please support our Business Members. During the year Lisa Stambaugh (one of our Business Members) and I work together to prepare a Certificate to present to these members. There is a special Business Member Appreciation Night during a reception at the Gallery. They can display this at their business. It is my pleasure to present each Business Member with two complementary tickets to the Holiday Gala.

At the end of the year I present each Member with a small thank you gift for their support during the Year.

Watercolor Painting Demonstration with Meghana (Meg) Mitragotri

Join award-winning local artist Meghana (Meg) Mitragotri for a virtual watercolor painting demonstration on September 22. Meg's style, which is sometimes realistic and sometimes impressionistic, is inspired by countryside landscapes, birds and flowers. She will demonstrate techniques she has developed and share tips she has learned from other experienced watercolorists.

Meg has shown her work at the Fremont Art Association and participated in the Guild's Holiday Show. She also has shown at many Bay Area galleries and other venues, such as the Harrington Gallery in Pleasanton, the Bankhead Theater in Livermore, and San Ramon City Hall. Meg is very experienced at presenting virtual workshops and demonstrations. The Fremont Art Association recently hosted Meg at a virtual demonstration. It is important to Meg to give back to the community, especially during the pandemic. She is currently a director on the Pleasanton Art League's Board, serving as the Scholarship Chairperson and is a member of Tri-Valley's Online Tech Team working on virtual projects to bring communities together.

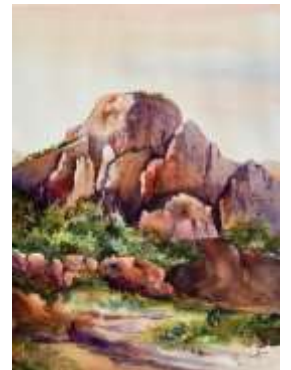

Meg is a prolific artist who also does a variety of crafts. Check out her website for beautiful examples of all her work and learn more about her at www.daintlymade.com.

Although this event is not a workshop, everyone is invited to try Meg's techniques as she demonstrates her process.

President's Message

It can be said that everyone who works toward a common goal is part of a team. A lot of the success of the Olive Hyde Art Guild can be attributed to team work and collaboration.

Ways and Means has a leadership team of 3, Gail Blalock, Joan Bobrink, Kate Mills. They will oversee the 38th Holiday Show and collaborate with 15 plus committee chairs to keep the event on track, starting about 9 months before the event. The Holiday Show has an excellent reputation amongst the participating artists and maintains high standards for the event which attracts wide support from community businesses and guild members.

The Members Juried Show is lead by a team of 4, Susan Longini, Lisa Stambaugh, Sue Saracco, Judy Anglin, and begins about 6 months before the exhibit opens at the Olive Hyde Art Gallery. The MJS always brings an exhibit of new and exciting art to the Gallery and sets records in attendance at its festive opening reception.

OHAG Programs is now lead by a team of 2, Elaina Habel and Jan Quilici. They continually search out ideas for a variety of programs to offer OHAG members and the public. These may include art demonstrations, hands on art work, artist studio and art museum/gallery visits.

The Serra Center Art Workshop has a committee of 4, Gloria Kim, Leslie McGarry, Judy Anglin, Gail Blalock. Their work behind the scenes ensures that the 20-22 SC artists have a comfortable setting that meets their needs, the proper art supplies, and a professional art instructor to help and inspire their amazing creativity.

The OHAG Board consists of 4 officers, myself, Manveen Kalyanpur, Radhika Sharma, Nancy Ruskin, plus about 13 chair positions. The board has the Guild's Mission and By-Laws as a guide in their decision making. Board meetings, currently held via zoom at 10am on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, are open to all OHAG members. If you're interested in joining a board meeting let me know and I'll provide you with the link.

As members of Olive Hyde Art Guild you are all part of the team!

My thanks and best to all of you,
Judy Anglin
