OHAG Receives EBCE Community Sponsorship

Supporting our art education and scholarship goals during the COVID pandemic has been a challenge for OHAG. Thus, in December 2021 OHAG was grateful and honored to be selected for a $2500 Community Sponsorship from East Bay Community Energy (EBCE). EBCE is the clean electricity generation provider for Alameda County and the City of Tracy, providing clean renewable energy at low costs. EBCE is a not-for-profit organization that reinvests earnings back into the community to create local green energy jobs, local programs, clean power projects, and financial sponsorships and grants. To learn more about EBCE and community Sponsorships, please go to: ebce.org

President’s Message

Happy New Year Greetings to Everyone!

While still faced with challenges of Covid and the recent surge of Omicron, OHAG successfully continues its ongoing support of the Olive Hyde Art Gallery and the visual arts in the schools and Fremont community. There have been some creative ways to get things done.

All board meetings are still held on zoom. While the interaction of meeting in person is missed, zoom meetings allow us to conduct all necessary business. Ways & Means Chairs Joan Bobrink and Kate Mills will host their first Holiday Show team meeting on zoom very soon. Artists in the Serra Center Art Workshop still cannot meet in-person so most likely their art instruction will continue remotely on zoom. Program Chairs Elaina Habel and Jan Quilici face their difficulties head on, searching for ways to bring art programs to Guild members and the public via zoom. Hopefully, in-person outings for their art programs will soon be on the horizon.

On the bright side, the COF Olive Hyde Art Center and Gallery remain open to the public, once again making it possible for gallery exhibits, receptions in the courtyard, and yes, our fabulous Holiday Show! OHAG Scholarship Awards Reception will be held 7-9pm, Friday, May 6th during the opening reception for the HTLT Exhibit. In the Fall, super exciting is the return of OHAG’s Holiday Show, Friday/Oct 21, Saturday/Oct 22, Sunday/Oct 23. Yay!!!

Best news and with thanks to Lorrie Wong, joining OHAG’s group of Sponsors is East Bay Community Energy, with a grant of $2,500. Thank you EBCE and congratulations Lorrie!

Lastly, you don’t want to miss the first Olive Hyde Art Gallery Exhibit of 2022, Journey of Color by May Shei!!! The opening reception, hosted by OHAG, will be 7-9pm Friday, Feb 4.

My thanks and best to all of you,
Judy Anglin

Current Exhibit - Journey of Color by May Shei

Born in a small town in southern Taiwan, May Shei brings the richness of her country's history into her artwork. Her paintings elegantly blend the traditional techniques of Asian art-making with her new contemporary processes. She often portrays the creatures of her childhood as well as ancient figures from Taiwan's cultural history. May's collection of work in Journey of Color examines the abstract, the natural, and the ways in which they collide with our modern world.

May Shei graduated from both the Tainan University of Technology as well as the Chinese Culture University in the Arts. May works as an art professional; teaching, creating, and showcasing her works in solo exhibitions and art competitions around the world. To learn more information about May Shei, please visit her website at mayshei.com.
