Please note that capacity is limited.

My OHAG Job: Historian

I've been the Historian at OHAG since 2010. My job is to document OHAG activities in a pictorial form in our on-line scrapbook. I also digitized all the old paper-based scrapbooks from 1983 to 2010 and added them to the on-line collection. I enjoy taking photographs so this job is a great fit for me. Unfortunately I cannot attend all the activities so I often rely on other OHAG members for taking pictures and emailing them to me for inclusion in the scrapbook. If you see me taking pictures at OHAG activity, please stop by to say "hi"!

NEWS from the Serra Center Art Workshop!

The Serra Center Art Workshop will wrap up the 9 week session on May 24, culminating with the ever popular pizza party! Cheers for the Fremont Community Center/Central Park class location which has worked very well, bypassing the evening parking and traffic difficulties around the Olive Hyde Art Center. The 22 artists from Serra Center, and COF Art Instructor Susan Bettencourt, have all enjoyed and had fun with their creative drawing and painting experience. For 11 years the Guild has sponsored and funded the entire annual program, including framing expenses of one artwork for each student. Thanks go to a remarkable team – SC/Leslie McGarry, COF/Gloria Kim, Irene Jordahl & Susan Bettencourt, OHAG/Gail Blalock and Judy Anglin!

CONGRATULATIONS to the 2022 Serra Center Artists!!!

President's Message

Hello and Happy May to everyone! Keeping an organization such as the Olive Hyde Art Guild running well requires a lot, and we are fortunate to have dedicated and capable members giving it their best.

Behind the scenes of the newsletter Karen Dobmeier has been in charge, managing the submittals, raising questions, catching mistakes, keeping us on deadline, deciding what goes in with a critical eye for informative articles and related photos, all in keeping with OHAG's purpose. Huge thanks and appreciation go to Karen for bringing us the monthly newsletter as she closes out 3 years on the job. Congratulations Karen!

Membership renewal envelopes for 2022-2023 have been filling the OHAG PO Box and I say "keep up the good work!" Your timely responses will greatly help Lorrie Wong when she starts preparing the new roster, and by the way, thank you for marking your areas of interest! Membership dues are a major source of funding for the Guild, especially after going through two years without the Holiday Show fundraiser.

Guild Historian Jurek Zarzycki is the man with the camera who photographs everything OHAG! His photos capture a history of events and activities of the Olive Hyde Art Guild including all artwork in every exhibit in the gallery, annual OHAG board member photo, views of all aspects of the Holiday Show, Serra Center Art Workshop artists and art, Scholarships art & winners, Programs on site or out & about. Jurek maintains the Online Scrapbook on the OHAG website. For a look, at the bottom of the OHAG website Home page, just click on "Online Scrapbook".

The Program for May 26th will be a special one. Hope to see you on the grounds of Allied Arts in Menlo Park for a treat to art, flowers, shopping and a delicious lunch!

Thank you for being a part of the Olive Hyde Art Guild! Judy Anglin

2022 Scholarship Recipients

On Friday, May 6th the Olive Hyde Art Guild hosted an art reception and awards presentation for the six student artists selected as finalists in the 2022 scholarship competition.

The jurors included Hoai-My Tran, Elina Choi, and Gabriel Restrepo. Among other pursuits, each juror is a practicing artist and currently teaches at Calcolor academy.

The jurors selected the finalists based on their written applications, technical craft, and the strength of their artistic voice. The jurors also shared advice they had for all the applicants.

For more information and student interviews (coming soon) please visit our website.
