PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

As we begin our new fiscal year I want to highlight some of the special things being done by some very special dedicated and talented members who serve the Olive Hyde Art Guild.

There is a fresh new look to the Newsletter! What fun! It's a new design with new colors and graphics, and it allows for extra flexibility with space for articles and pictures. Huge thanks go to the imaginative and capable team of Lisa Stambaugh, Seema Gupta, and Manveen Kalyanpur, for the hours they put in on this transformation and the exciting results. Hope you enjoy it!

The Holiday Show is so close!!! There is lots going on and much to do. Not to worry though! The show is in the able hands of Kate Mills and Joan Bobrink, and is being managed extremely well. All members on their leadership team are presently gearing up to cover their important responsibilities. Lots of help is still needed from guild members so please join in if you can. Sign up and you will have a good time helping bring success to the Guild's major fundraising event.

The Board of Directors met together for its first meeting on August 10 and welcomed these new board members: Secretary Dianna Baptiste; Business Membership Scott Capen; Program Chairs Wendy Spellman and Carolyn Hedgecock. It will be a privilege to work with each of them.

The MSJ Better Block Event will take place Friday night Sept 9th, 5-9pm and Saturday Sept 10th, 11am-3pm. The event location all around Washington Blvd/Ellsworth Street will feature live music, food, public art, beer and wine gardens, pop up market, activities for kids, market vendors. Olive Hyde Art Gallery will be open and the Guild will set up in the courtyard! More details TBD!

The Guild's Courtyard Projects continue! Later this month, Dmitry Grudsky will start preparing the large concrete trash container for application of his mosaic tile artwork. Additionally, the dull wood slat trash containers will be painted with colors to coordinate with the bench, trellis, and Dmitry's mosaic tiled container. These capital improvements are funded by Olive Hyde Art Guild. Hope to be finished in October!

My thanks and best to all of you!
Judy Anglin, President

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Article in Tri City Voice created increased attendance at Annual Textile Exhibit. Great local interest. Colored walls complemented artwork.
- Holiday for Art Show and Sale with Exhibition Dates: October 21-23, 2022. Roberta Moody has recruited many new artists and many of our favorite past artists. The show will be spectacular!
- After the Holiday Show, Virtual Exhibit Thursday, November 3rd - Saturday, December 17, 2022 and Opening Reception: Friday November 18, 2022. We will need more donations of food because the great attendance of Textile Exhibit wiped us out.
- What would you like as a program next year? Ideas and suggestions please.
- Lorrie Wong is working on the new roster and name tags. Needs new roster for City's STEAM event
- Fremont's Better Block project evening of Sept 9th will include Olive Hyde's courtyard turning into a Beer Garden. Oh my what would Olive say??? OHAG will set up a booth . Content displayed is in planning.
- Courtyard beautification is continuing with the majority approval of $1750 to paint the slats on Garbage bin.
- California declared April as Arts, Culture, and Creativity month. Fremont Arts Now is pulling together a city wide Arts Calendar. Guild will put receptions on calendar for the whole public.

Did you know that Leonardo da Vinci Was a Procrastinator?

He is unquestionably one of the most famous artists in history. Ironically, one quirk that made him such a genius was that he was easily distracted.

GET TO KNOW OUR BUSINESS MEMBER MARIO ZUNIGA FROM BAY FRAMES

Q: How long has Bay Frames been in business?

A: I purchased the business in 2012 so it's been ten years that I've owned the business.

Q: How did you get interested in the framing business?

A: I started working for the previous owner back in 2003. At that time my Aunt was working here and they needed extra help so she asked me if I would like to learn how to do framing. I had always been good working with my hands and I had a lot of interest in the arts so I thought why not combine the two? So over the years I learned the trade and really enjoyed it. Then one day the owner decided that he wanted to sell the business and asked me if I would like to purchase it, so I jumped on it.

Q: What do you enjoy the most about your business?

A: The part I enjoy most is learning the stories behind every customer. I get to see pictures from where they have been and what they've experienced. I learn about places and things, (though I may never experience them personally,) through my customers. Also, there is a history factor. I have framed works that hold historical interest to the Tri-Cities, Bay Area, and the world.

Q: What were your biggest challenges during the pandemic and did your business suffer because of it?

A: There were supply chain issues, molding for the frames, glass, backing materials, matting, those sort of things. There was a huge slowdown in business, especially during the first two months of the pandemic, and staffing issues. I had to lay off my extra workers which really hurt.

Q: What do you want your existing and potential customers to know most about Mario's Bay Frames?

A: I would want my customers to know: At Bay Frames you'll receive excellent quality backed by years of experience. We can do small jobs, large jobs and anything in between. We are a one stop shop! We can Print, Frame, and Install your artwork.

ANNUAL TEXTILE EXHIBIT

Don't miss this wonderful exhibit!
