MARJORIE FREMONT'S MEMORIAL AND CELEBRATION OF LIFE

We will hold the remembrance on October 1, 2022 from 2pm to 6pm in the afternoon, in Fremont, at Olive Hyde Art Center, a landmark building that was a place dear to Marjorie's heart. She worked there every December at the Christmas Gala and had her paintings hang (and win awards) in various art shows there. There is a large cactus garden for outdoor gathering as well as a pleasant indoor area where we will have a photo loop and music. We will serve food, snacks, dessert, coffee, tea, beer and wine. Please bring your memories of Marjorie. Hope you all can make it. If you can't attend in person please think of Marjorie on this day. Thank you.

The date: October 1, 2022

The time: 2pm - 6pm

The place: Olive Hyde Art Center,
123 Washington Blvd, Fremont, CA

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

Fall greetings are in order! It's exciting to move into a new season and I for one am a little inspired by it.

Please, if you would direct your attention to the OHAG Website, superbly managed by Lisa Stambaugh. Lisa continually receives new information and updates the various areas on our website. She is the go-to person for many of us when assistance, opinions, and guidance are needed. I don't know what we would do without her!

If you have never visited the website, or if it's been awhile, start with the Home page and go from there to all things OHAG.

Click on Project Mini Art for details about this very special Holiday Show fundraiser to benefit OHAG Scholarships. Denise Oyama Miller oversees this important program.

Click on Holiday for the Arts for all the very latest updates: a list of our amazing Sponsors & Community Contributors; links for you to sign up and volunteer at the Holiday Show; link to Ticket page where you will find a form to order and purchase Gala tickets; links to helpful information for participating artists. Chairs Kate Mills and Joan Bobrink are in charge!

Click on Business Members to view current listing, to find out the many benefits afforded our Business Members and how to become a Business Member. Scott Capen chairs this program.

There is a lot more to discover on the OHAG website so explore away and you might be surprised. Check out Exhibits, Programs, Newsletters, Online Scrapbook, and Scholarships.

Ongoing and full speed ahead is work for the Holiday Show. Very soon, an E-blast will be coming to you with an important request and details for members to contribute food items for the Gala. Your help in this area will be greatly appreciated. Gala Hospitality Chairs Martha Mahuron and Pam Condy are in charge!

The BetterBlock event was a little work and a lot of fun! Huge thanks for the help in all areas: Manveen Kalyanpur, Scott Capen, Kate Mills, Judy Cooper, Roberta Moody, Dianna Baptiste, Diane Leys, Elaina Habel, Gail Blalock, Irene Jordahl, Bob Tavares, Jim & Valerie Tavares, Joan Bobrink, Lisa Stambaugh.

My thanks and best to all of you!

Judy Anglin, President

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- OHAG president Judy Anglin was invited to speak at the Fremont Rotary Club
- The textile exhibit was truly appreciated by everyone - so far we have 7 pieces sold
- Programs - considering different options - Niles Essanay Silent Film Museum tour in early November, South Lake Tahoe painted silk artist in January or March with a hands-on session, Art in the Mission San Jose church (frescoes and wall paintings) - Stay tuned!
- Peter Langenbach has offered two sculptures for the Gala - the winner gets to choose one!
- Better Block Fremont was a huge success and we got a lot of visitors - a lot of folks had not even heard of OHAG even though they were from Fremont. Everyone appreciated the exhibit and our beautiful colorful space tucked across Mission San Jose
- We now have 153 members. The rosters were mailed out. There was a discussion on whether rosters were even needed or necessary. Printing costs have gone up a lot. Another issue is privacy - 153 members have emails and phone numbers of each other.
- $750 was set up by Jan Schafir for the scholarship fund - we will do a write up of her at the scholarship reception
- Courtyard improvements - The wooden slat bins have been painted in the colors of this newsletter to complement the trellis/bench. After cementing the base, Dimitry Grudsky is hard at work to finish the mosaic trash bin.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Holiday for the Arts is the Guild's biggest fundraiser and celebration of the year. It takes a lot of work before, during, and after the event to ensure it goes smoothly and everyone has a good time.

Can you spare a few hours between October 17 and October 26? It's a great way to give back to the Guild and the community that supports us. You're guaranteed to meet fellow members and have some fun.

Sign up by going to our website and deciding on a work area, day, and shift. Here is the link:

<https://olivehydeartguild.org/holiday-for-the-arts-2/holiday-show-sale-volunteers/>

Enter your name and email. You will be sent a reminder.

Do you have trouble with signing up online? Don't worry. Simply send an email to Kate Mills mackater@comcast.net or call/text 510-552-3656 to express where and when you can help!

Thanks for being on the 2022 Olive Hyde Art Guild Holiday Show & Sale Team!

Calling ALL Members! Share your Favorite Appetizer!

Our annual Gala event is always great fun, in large part due to the wonderful refreshments provided by all our members. Please help continue the tradition, and plan on contributing your favorite finger food - savory appetizer or dessert - for the evening of Friday, October 21

The event starts at 5:30, but if you're unable to attend, there will be someone in the OHAG kitchen to accept your donation from 3PM onwards. Please note if your item needs to be reheated or refrigerated, and mark any container that needs to be returned with your name and phone number.

Thank you so much for supporting the Guild!

Did you know that Edgar Degas was fascinated with ballet dancers?

He became obsessed with representing them in his art. It is estimated that Degas made 1500 paintings, prints, drawings and pastels of dancers .

GET TO KNOW OUR BUSINESS MEMBER PAT COTE, KELLER WILLIAMS REALTOR

Q: How long have you been involved with Residential Real Estate?

A: I have been in Real Estate for 21 years.

Q: How did you get started? What inspired you?

A: I decided to go into Real Estate after my divorce. My children were now in High School and College and that gave me the freedom to do whatever I wanted to do on weekends or during the week. It turned out to be a wonderful thing for me to get into because I could go into the office if I didn't want to stay home alone and that's what I would do because my divorce was very new. Then it became a fun thing to do. It was no longer a job, it was fun.

Q: What do you enjoy the most about Residential Real Estate?

A: It's a wonderful way to earn money, meet people, go out to lunch, go out to breakfast (which is when I'm doing this interview) inviting other people to various events. It's everything I like to do.

Q: What were your biggest challenges during the pandemic and how did your business suffer because of it?

A: My biggest challenge during the pandemic was staying at home. I am not an introvert at all and I felt that I was becoming one having to stay home all the time. It was not an easy time at all and my business suffered dramatically. I wasn't doing what I was supposed to be doing to get new business and so I would end up at my desk with no one to talk to. It was something I think a lot of people experienced. Also coming out of the pandemic has been difficult as well. Some people are still reluctant to be with large groups of people and you have to be careful about how you deal with people's feelings and respect their wishes. But of course you need to do that on a daily basis anyway regardless if Covid is an issue or not.

Q: What do you want your existing and potential clients to know about Pat Cote?

A: I am very honest and fair. I will always be there for you and protect you during and after a sale, help you with all your forms that need completing and carry out my duties in a very professional manner. I love meeting people and making new friends and keeping the real estate sale as free of stress as possible.
