PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

As you might guess, in this moment of time... It's all about the Holiday Show!!! We hope the long awaited comeback will be nothing short of amazing.

The Gala courtyard scene will have a very different look. With the timing of our show in October, the usual tenting of the courtyard is not needed. We are expecting a lovely Friday evening in the open courtyard, where delicious food, appetizers & sweets will be set out on tables and served for guests to enjoy. The lively wine bar will be open with a variety of wines to choose from, DasBrew will serve two of their specialty beers, and cocktail tables will be spaced around for a relaxing pause.

Most exciting will be the array of wonderful art displayed so beautifully inside the Olive Hyde Gallery and Mission Room. What a pleasure to have so many returning artists as well as 20 or so new ones whose works were accepted into the Show & Sale. This is the "fundraising" part of Holiday for the Arts that will enable the guild to continue its important contributions to the visual arts in our community and schools. Enjoy this shopping opportunity!

There are not enough words to express my thanks and appreciation to our Holiday Show leaders, Kate Mills and Joan Bobrink, and the amazing group chair persons. The event would not happen without their hard work, determination and dedication. Bravo!!!

And special thanks to all guild members who have signed up to work, who will bring food items for the Gala, and who have purchased Gala tickets.

Holiday for the Arts:

Tickets on sale at the door for Opening Night Gala Friday, Oct 21, 5:30p-9pm

Show & Sale on Saturday and Sunday, Oct 22 & 23 from 10am- 5pm

Coming up on November 10th, you will not want to miss the Field Trip to Niles Essanay Theatre, planned by Program Chairs Wendy Spellman and Carolyn Hedgecock. I for one am looking forward to it!

*My thanks and best to all of you!
Judy Anglin, President*

Special Donations Support Holiday for the Arts!!!

Super thanks to guild member response for pledges of wine to help stock the Wine Bar for the Gala Night, and for the monetary donations that go towards the many Holiday Show expenses. There is still time if you might like to give a little extra support with a pledge of wine or a monetary donation. Small donations add up and all are appreciated!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Holiday for the Arts is the Guild's biggest fundraiser and celebration of the year. It takes a lot of work before, during, and after the event to ensure it goes smoothly and everyone has a good time.

Can you spare a few hours between October 17 and October 26? It's a great way to give back to the Guild and the community that supports us. You're guaranteed to meet fellow members and have some fun.

Sign up by going to our website and deciding on a work area, day, and shift. Here is the link:

<https://olivehydeartguild.org/holiday-for-the-arts-2/holiday-show-sale-volunteers/>

Enter your name and email. You will be sent a reminder.

Do you have trouble with signing up online? Don't worry. Simply send an email to Kate Mills mackater@comcast.net or call/text 510-552-3656 to express where and when you can help!

Thanks for being on the 2022 Olive Hyde Art Guild Holiday Show & Sale Team!

Calling ALL Members! Share your Favorite Appetizer!

Our annual Gala event is always great fun, in large part due to the wonderful refreshments provided by all our members. Please help continue the tradition, and plan on contributing your favorite finger food - savory appetizer or dessert - for the evening of Friday, October 21

The event starts at 5:30, but if you're unable to attend, there will be someone in the OHAG kitchen to accept your donation from 3PM onwards. Please note if your item needs to be reheated or refrigerated, and mark any container that needs to be returned with your name and phone number.

Thank you so much for supporting the Guild!

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Excited to have our first Program in November on Thursday, the 10th from 10AM to 12 noon at the Niles Essanay Silent Film Museum
- Other options for programs being explored - Hands-on mosaic workshop by Dmitry Grudsky, art in the Mission San Jose church, flower arrangement demo (any leads to a florist who would be willing to do this would be helpful), Shinn House Historical Park and Arboretum, Outdoor photography, San Jose Museum of Art
- Preparations for the Gala and Show/Sale in full swing. All the chairs are busy doing their parts.
- Lots of donations from the different businesses in the City of Fremont for the Gala. So thankful to have such a supportive community.
- Write-up on food donations for the Gala will be going out soon.
- Scholarship material being prepped and working with Ohlone College Webmaster to continue accepting applications online. Thinking of changing the scholarship deadline to early May to better fit the receptions and student schedules during that time of the year
- The mosaic trash bin in the courtyard is almost complete and looking dazzlingly spectacular! We can't wait to see the finished product! A heartfelt thank you to our member artist Dmitry Grudsky for his diligent work. No short cuts taken and super detailed neat work.
- Project Mini Art for the Gala looks wonderful and we look forward to seeing it at the upcoming Gala, Show and Sale.

FIELD TRIP TO NILES ESSANAY SILENT FILM MUSEUM

Thursday, November 10, 2022 at 10 AM

Olive Hyde Art Guild will be visiting Niles Essanay Silent Film Museum (www.nilesfilmmuseum.org). A docent will tell us about the history of the town of Niles, the theater, and the history of the films made here from 1912 to 1916 by the Essanay Film Studio. We will tour the theater and museum and be fortunate to see the 109 year old projection room. Two short films will entertain us, with one starring the first cowboy film star, Broncho Billy Anderson, and the other starring Charlie Chaplin in one of his five short films made in Niles.

Join the group for this approximately two hour event on Thursday November 10th at 10 am, 37417 Niles Boulevard, Fremont. A donation of $7.00 is suggested. This event is open to non Olive Hyde members.
