A Virtual Visit with Kilnformed Glass artist Susan Longini

Join Fremont glass artist Susan Longini as she explains her process for producing her marvelous art pieces. This zoom event will be held Wednesday February 23 at 10:00 AM. Susan's kilnformed glass is quite different from other more common types of glass-making, such as blown glass and stained glass. Her art is pâte de verre, literally "paste of glass", which uses glass frits and powders formed by hand and placed into or over a mold, then fired multiple times in a kiln to produce one-of-a-kind sculptures.

Susan has shown her work all over the world, many of which are at museums and galleries here in the Bay Area, including the Triton Museum of Art, the Oakland Museum of California, and, of course, our own Olive Hyde Art Gallery. Her work is part of the Triton's permanent collection and is on display there through February 20. You may have seen some of Susan's larger permanent installations at Highland Hospital, O'Connor Hospital, and Washington Hospital where she has eight beautiful pieces.

Susan received her Bachelor of Fine Arts with a major in sculpture from the University of Michigan and did postgraduate studies in glass at San Jose State University and California College of the Arts. She has contributed to the world of glass art as teacher, lecturer, juror, and guest curator. Locally, she has been Adjunct Professor and head of the Glass Program at Ohlone College, Executive Director of the Bay Area Glass Institute (BAGI) in San Jose, a member of the City of Fremont Art Review Board, and a board member of the Glass Alliance of Northern California (GLANC). Susan is also Program Manager for boxART! in charge of transforming 180 Fremont traffic signal control boxes into works of art.

Check out Susan's website for examples of her work and to learn more about her at susanlongini.com

My OHAG Job: The Hospitality Chair is responsible for hosting 5-6 City of Fremont Art Exhibit receptions per year.

It entails organizing member and student volunteers to prepare and serve food and beverages during the reception. Reception Dates are set by the City of Fremont and usually on Friday nights during exhibitions from 7-9pm at the Olive Hyde gallery. The gallery has a kitchen and storage facilities available for use during the reception.

Some of the tasks include contacting and scheduling students and members, volunteering for serving assistance and food or cash donations. Order, purchase and prepare appetizers, desserts, beverages & serving supplies. Setup, maintaining food and beverage supplies, clean up kitchen & reception areas.

The Hospitality Chair is a minimum time commitment of 15-20 days per year. Option to share with a co-chair could also help with reception dates and tasks.

The Holiday Sale Gala is organized by a separate committee.

President’s Message

Full Speed Ahead is the scene all around Olive Hyde Art Guild!

It’s a whirlwind of Holiday Show activity as Joan Bobrink & Kate Mills have taken over, connecting with all the 2019 Chairs, re-organizing from top to bottom, and preparing well in advance of the Oct 21/22/23 Gala, Show & Sale. When the time comes, please sign up to help and join the fun!

OHAG Programs come to life again as Elaina Habel & Jan Quilici bring an exciting February Virtual Studio Tour on Zoom with star of the show, glass artist Susan Longini. To participate, the details on Susan Longini’s Virtual Studio Tour are available on Programs at www.olivehydeartguild.org. Coming up in March will be a program featuring artist Jennifer Wool, famous for her gourd gardens and basketry!

Olive Hyde Courtyard Enhancements has seen substantial progress with Guild VP Manveen Kalyanpur as Project Chair. Manveen continues to collaborate with COF/Rec Supervisor Gloria Kim on steps to have (1) the courtyard trellis & bench spruced up with color & paint, as well as (2) embellishment of the 3 courtyard trash receptacles with colorful mosaic tile artwork. Look for pizzazz in the courtyard!

The March 4th Opening Reception for Olive Hyde Art Gallery Solo Artist May Shei Exhibit, Journey of Color offers a social evening in the courtyard. The public is invited to meet the artist and view the exhibit of beautiful Chinese paintings. Hospitality Chair Lauren Shaver, with help from Guild members and FCAC student intern volunteers, will make sure that guests are treated to an array of appetizers & sweets. Robyn Leimer and husband Mike oversee service at the popular wine bar, often with help from Maureen & Peter Langenbach.

The OHAG Board is looking forward to a break from Zoom. We’ll meet in-person in March!

My best to everyone,
Judy Anglin
