New Location for Serra Center Art Workshop!

The Serra Center Art Workshop is looking forward to its 11th year with a 9 week spring session at a new location, Fremont Community Center, Central Park/Lake Elizabeth. The larger size room will ensure a safe setting, with adequate working space and distance seating. The class will run March 29 – May 24 on Tuesday evenings from 5:30pm to 7:30pm and will be taught by COF Art Instructor Susan Bettencourt. This art instruction program, funded and sponsored by OHAG, is made possible through the collaborative efforts of the Guild, Serra Center, and the City of Fremont Recreation Services. Thanks to a great team - Leslie McGarry, Gloria Kim, Irene Jordahl, Susan Bettencourt, Gail Blalock and Judv Anglin!

My OHAG Job: PROGRAM COMMITTEE CHAIR POSITION

In our opinion, the program Committee is the most fun and interesting job in the Guild. If you enjoy a wide range of art, visiting local galleries and art museums, consider volunteering for the Program Committee. You will enjoy meeting and inviting talented artists to be our Program Guest Artists. It's fascinating to watch a demo and fun to try a mini-workshop. Additionally, it's great to take a field trip to an exhibition at a major Bay Area Art Museum. Seeing our members supporting and participating in the programs is also rewarding. Perhaps more important, programs provide an opportunity for us to welcome our members and invite the public to attend a program--and hopefully join the Guild.

Having Co-Chairs for Programs is a great way to discuss potential guest artists or field trip locations as well as to share the work. Currently we are Co-Chairs. We generally check out potential places and people together for programs. Jan does most of the program write ups for the Guild and the Tri-City voice. Elaina is very familiar with local artists and art venues and so is generally the initial contact with them. Elaina also interfaces with Lisa Stambaugh for the website. Usually, we both attend the Wednesday morning board meetings, but it's not necessary that both of us be there. In fact, if neither can attend for some reason, we can send information to Guild President Judy Anglin and she will present it to the board.

The program committee might be the right place for you. Either of us would be delighted to tell you more about it.

Elaina Habel and Jan Quilici, Program Co-Chairs

Olive Hyde Art Guild's President, Judy Anglin and Ways & Means Co-chairs, Kate Mills and Joan Bobrink met at a recent Olive Hyde reception to tell Peter Langenbach that he has been selected as Featured Artist for the 2022 Holiday Show and Sale.

Peter will choose a piece of his artwork to donate to Olive Hyde as a door prize at the Gala October 21, 2022.

President's Message

Spring is definitely in the air and all around the guild, with lots to do by the close of OHAG's fiscal year!

The Nominating Committee is beginning its task to fill some open positions on the Board for the 2022-2023 year. Please consider serving if you are contacted by Manveen Kalyanpur, Lorrie Wong, or Jeanne Delp. There are some wonderful opportunities to join in and get involved.... a little, or a lot!!!

"My Courage & Strength" is the theme of Children's Mental Health Awareness Day Art Competition and virtual Art Exhibit hosted by COF Human Services Departments' Youth and Family Services Division, in partnership with FUSD schools. OHAG is pleased to support the event with a gift of $400 for art supply prize kits and gift cards.

The Olive Hyde Friday night reception for the May Shei Exhibit saw a wonderful turn out. Huge thanks and kudos to Hospitality Chair Lauren Shaver, Karen Dobmeier, several FCAC student interns, and guild members – all working behind the scenes and out in the courtyard to make sure guests had plenty of savories and sweets. Not to be outdone, the wine bar was maybe the most popular spot with Robyn & Mike Leimer in charge, and with Maureen & Peter Langenbach pouring. Great job all around!!!
OHAG Annual Dinner or Lunch? – That is the question! The annual installation celebration details will be shared once they are worked out. In the meantime, hold the Wednesday, June 22nd date open for either a luncheon or dinner.

That's all for now! Please let me hear from you if you have any questions, suggestions, ideas or comments.

My thanks and best to all of you,
Judy Anglin

PROJECT MINI ART RETURNS

Project Mini Art was such a wonderful success in 2020 that we are bringing it back as part of our Holiday Show in October. We will display and sell Mini Artwork by our OHAG members for $35 each. All proceeds will go to the Scholarship fund. The guild will provide a 5" x 5" gallery-wrapped canvas with a 1-1/2" profile to all artists who would like to participate. We will show 40 of these small pieces.

All mediums that can be applied or adhered to this surface are eligible to participate, including painting, glass, collage, photography, fiber/textiles, beading, knitting, mixed media, mosaics, ceramics, and more. Guidelines for completion of these pieces will be provided. There is no entrance fee for this event.

If you are interested in participating, send an email with your name, phone, email, medium, and any questions you may have to deniseoyamamiller@comcast.net. Please respond by the end of April. The first 40 artists will be accepted and will get 1 canvas to complete.

Here's a piece from the last Project Mini Art in 2020, "Owl" by Barbara Schlein.
