Programs

Join Maria Luna for a flower-arranging demonstration in the Mission Room at the Olive Hyde Art Center at 10 AM on April 28.

Maria will cover basic flower-arranging principles and show using your creativity to make arrangements using containers you may have around the house and flowers from your garden or farmer's market.

Maria's father used to make floral arches for their church and so when at 16 she saw a help wanted sign in a florist's window, she applied. Maria found she loved making arrangements and had a real talent. After a bit, she went to work making arrangements for Fremont Flowers. Over the 42 years she worked for them, she became the flower-buyer and even added a wholesale department to the flower shop and started teaching classes for City of Fremont and to brides on how to do their own wedding flowers.

This event is a demonstration and not a workshop, so there is no need to bring anything with you except perhaps something for taking notes. Attendance is limited to 30 so sign up soon. Masks are strongly encouraged. Register at <https://olivehydeartguild.org/> and then go to Programs

My OHAG Job: Board Secretary

I have been a member of the OHAG for a few years, however in my brief stint as the Board Secretary (2021-2022) I have received the opportunity to deepen my understanding of the scope and nature of the activities of the Art Guild. The work of the secretary is an essential component of record keeping and note taking. I have taken meeting minutes for each of the board's monthly meetings in the past year. The meeting minutes continue to serve the board and offer a very useful summary of the events of the month. The minutes also serve as a valuable planning tool. I appreciate this opportunity to be a part of the OHAG board and look forward to contributing in the future.

OHAG Treasurer's Report

BANK BALANCE 3/1/2022	$	45,726.61
INCOME
EXPENSES		1,167.26
BANK BALANCE 3/01/22		44,559.35
LESS UNCLEARED CHECKS		-400.00
BANK Balance 3/31/22		44,159.35
CD + INTEREST		10,531.02
PAYPAL ACCOUNT		394.97
TOTAL ASSETS 02/28/22		$55,085.34

Board Highlights 1. Budget for 2022-2023 was proposed and reviewed. Much like last years except 2000$ added for exhibitions.

2. Two pieces were sold from May Shieh's Show
3. Hidden Treasures Local Talent - 18 artists are participating. Virtual exhibit opens on Apr 14th and opening reception on May 6th
4. All scholarship applications were from American High. Deadline has been extended. A big barrier for the scholarship is the letter for recommendation. Board approved eliminating the letter of recommendation and just going with the artwork which speaks for itself.
5. Nominating Committee has filled positions for Secretary, Publicity, Hospitality Co-Chair, Business Membership and Newsletter. Programs Co-Chairs still under discussion.
6. Basket weaving Program was a success. Next up is a flower arranging demonstration with yard or farmer's market flowers.
7. Ways and Means busy preparing for the Gala and Holiday Show.
8. Volunteers at last reception were super helpful. Due to recent vandalism, some supplies had to be replenished
9. Renewal envelopes and ballots will be mailed late April
10. 3 stain options approved by the city for courtyard trellis and bench paint
11. 500$ approved for buying a wireless microphone system
12. OHAG member Robyn Leimer will serve on review panel for the 2022 Student Art Contest
13. 400$ was received from donations in memory of member Jan Schafir who recently passed away
14. Annual Luncheon will be at Mission Coffee on Jun 22nd
15. Judy completed the application for a grant from the Fremont Bank Foundation

President's Message

What a pleasure it is to share positive updates on the business of Olive Hyde Art Guild! Nominating Committee, Scholarships, Budget proposal for 2022-2023, Programs, Hidden Treasures Local Talent, OHAG donations, Membership Renewal, Olive Hyde Courtyard Spruce Up - all are progressing well as we near the end of the OHAG fiscal year, June 30.

Manveen Kalyanpur, Lorrie Wong, and Jeanne Delp are the Nominating Committee! Considering what a difficult job it can be, they have made exciting strides in bringing some new faces to the OHAG board! You'll find out when your Voting Ballot with the 2022-2023 slate of Board Officers & Chairs arrives by mail early in May.

Also included with the ballot will be membership renewal business. This information, coming to you from Membership Chair Lorrie Wong, should not stay in an unattended pile on your desk! Please act ASAP to get your ballot in and renew your membership. That will put a smile on Lorrie's face.

Ways & Means Kate Mills and Joan Bobrink have been methodically connecting with their numerous Holiday Show Chairs, setting in motion early preparations for the event on October 21, 22, 23! Not to miss a beat, Artist Chair Roberta Moody has her "Call" for new and returning artists out there too. A successful event depends on new and returning artists, with a variety of quality art and goods for attendees to view and purchase. Please send any referrals for new artists to Roberta.

The upcoming May 6th Friday Night Reception for the HTLT Exhibit will include the Guild's Scholarship Awards presentation by Dina Rubiolo, Art Gallery Director at Ohlone College and OHAG's Scholarship Chair, and Co-Chair Lynne Sparling. There will be an exhibit of the awarded and runner-up artworks inside the Mission Building. Come meet and congratulate these talented high school and college art students!

There's lot more but will save for the May newsletter. I cannot close without sincerely thanking all the dedicated Guild members serving in so many ways with their time, skills and good cheer, in board positions, as officers, chairs, and volunteers. Well, we are all volunteers!!!

Hope to see you in the Mission Room on Thursday, April 28 at 10am for Maria Luna's fabulous creative flower arranging Program!

My thanks and best to all of you, Judy Anglin, President

2022 OHLONE COLLEGE ANNUAL JURIED STUDENT ART EXHIBITION

The Louie-Meager Art Gallery is proud to announce the opening of the Ohlone College Student Art Awards Exhibition.

www.ohlone.edu/artgallery

The gallery is located in the Smith Center for Performing Arts on the Fremont campus and is free and open to the public M/W 10-2 pm, and T/TH 9-4pm through May 13th. Vaccinations are required at all Ohlone College events.

Dr. KC Rosenberg and Modesto Covarrubias, art collaborators on RococoProjects.com and professors at the California College of Art, juried the exhibition and selected artwork to receive special recognition and cash awards sponsored by the Olive Hyde Art Guild.

The guild has also selected one artwork to receive a cash award for the first ever Olive Hyde Art Guild, Member's Choice award.

2022 OLIVE HYDE ART GUILD SCHOLARSHIPS

The Olive Hyde Art Guild scholarships exhibition and awards presentation will be held at the Olive Hyde Art Gallery, Mission Room on Friday May 6th from 7-9 pm in conjunction with the Hidden Treasures exhibition.

The scholarships are offered to Fremont area High School students and Ohlone College Students for the pursuit of visual art in higher education.

The jurors are Elina Choi, Gabriel Restrepo, and Hoai-My Tran. Each is an artist and educator who teaches at the CalColor Academy.
