PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

Olive Hyde Art Center and Gallery! What a gem we have here in Mission San Jose!!!

It was an amazing backdrop for the Friday night opening reception of OHAG's Members Juried Show. In the charming courtyard people were treated to the ever popular wine bar, sweets & savories at the food tables, live music on the terrace by NSQ saxophone quartet, and a very lively social scene of guild members, artists, their friends & family, and people from around the community. Everyone came to see the wonderful art of 40 talented OHAG artists exhibited inside the lobby and three rooms of the Gallery. Amazing!!!

Who do we thank, who do we honor for this treasure of an art center in our community? Looking around the Olive Hyde Art Center and Gallery I often think about the woman whose name it bears, her generous gift to Mission San Jose, entrusting its care to the City of Fremont. Some of you may not be familiar with the history, and that ... "Olive Hyde is a real person, not just the name of a building." words from Cecilia Weed.

In 1935, over 80 years ago, a woman by the name of Olive Hyde from a wealthy prominent family in San Francisco moved to Mission San Jose and bought various properties. She had a dignified and gracious manner, was a business woman with a strong personality, an accomplished violinist musician, historian, early environmentalist and antique dealer. In the 1940's she purchased the Boulder Saloon on the corner of Mission and Washington Boulevards, had the saloon removed and hired noted architect Butler Sturdyvant to design two buildings, one to be her residence, the other for a gift shop & tearoom. In 1962 Olive Hyde donated the buildings to the city of Fremont, to be used for cultural and recreational purposes. After many generous and significant contributions to the city, in 1968 Olive Hyde moved back to San Francisco, never to return to Fremont. She passed away 1987 at the age of 101.

Olive Hyde gave the buildings to the city and in the words of Bob McIvor spoken to me some years ago before he passed away, "If someone gives something to you --- you should take care of it. " The Guild strives to honor that with its support of this wonderful city of Fremont art center and gallery, having contributed over the years to many upgrades and enhancements.

Thank you Olive Hyde for the Olive Hyde Art Center and Gallery! We are grateful!!!

My thanks and best to all of you,
Judy Anglin, President

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Went through the budget for next year - Donations to organizations we help out and scholarship checks will typically be made out in April/May
- Our profits from the Holiday Show were about $7000 and the Board approved for that amount to go to COF - Will help the COF Recreation Services a lot since inflation is biting everyone
- Scholarship Reception on May 19th and we will keep the gallery open for the reception
- Kids Crafts on Sunday Apr 16th at OHAG from 11 to 1
- Docent tours will be given by Leah Andrews on Apr 20th after the OHAG social which will be from 10 AM to 12 PM on Thursday, April 20th
- Serra Center program started at the Lake Elizabeth community center - beautiful location and everyone was super engaged.- heartening to see!
- STEAM event at Downtown Event Center was hugely successful - Recreation had a table promoting gallery and events
- Mosaic bin has an insert so that the beautiful artwork does not get covered with the plastic!
- Lorrie Wong keeps an Excel spreadsheet of members that's mailed to the city to print labels and another file which is the roster- The roster will not be printed and mailed to every member - only those who "need to access" (the Board and specific task folks) will have it available
- Photography Field Trip at Shinn House on May 2nd
- Scholarship emails have been sent out but not many applications yet - Deadline is Apr 28th
- Nominating committee busy at work trying to fill up all the vacation positions

The Olive Hyde Gallery curator, Leah Andrews will juror the exhibition.

UPCOMING!!!

APRIL PROGRAM: ASSEMBLAGE WITH MICHAEL SUNZERI THUR, APRIL 27TH 10 AM TO 1PM AT THE MISSION ROOM

Michael is a San Jose native. He always had his fingers in something to do with art, realizing there were no rules. He started assembling and modifying model cars at age 8. By age 12 he became enamored with different artistic styles of lettering and simple drawing. By high school he was well into different art techniques both in painting and collage, but he became extremely interested in drafting. After serving in the Navy, he landed work as an electro/mechanical Draftsman, later becoming a designer, mainly in Circuit Board Technology.

He later spent 22 years attending almost every local college in Santa Clara County, graduating from San Jose State with two Art related degrees. His main interest then was ceramics, both wheel and hand building, and also painted with acrylics and enamel and did some photography too. In all these endeavors, his tutoring came from some of the best local artists. Robert Strini, Dave Ogle, Clayton Bailey, and Kathy McBride to name a few. Dali has always been his biggest inspiration while he embraced a minimalist and asymmetrical mindset, straying from both at times. Having been trained in Pottery, Painting, and Photography, his concentration now is Assemblage. Gathering all artistic past knowledge, he applies it to spending an inordinate amount of time thinking of his next piece. Much of his work can be hung on walls, on the floor free standing, or placed on tabletops, even small jewelry.

MARCH PROGRAM: FIELD TRIP MUSEUM ON MAIN IN PLEASANTON

Viewing the Pleasanton Art League's Member Show in Pleasanton was a good opportunity for us to see the creations by their members. A few of the PAL members are also members of OHAG, and you may see their art included in our members' show in April. This was held at the Museum on Main, so we were also able to view pieces of history from long ago, some looking very familiar since the Mission San Jose land extended into the Tri-Valley area. After our educational visit, we enjoyed friendly conversation and lunch at a local restaurant.

GET TO KNOW OUR BUSINESS MEMBERS: JIM & VALERIE TAVARES TAVARES REAL ESTATE & APPRAISALS

Q1. How long have you been in the Real Estate field?

Jim: I became a licensed Real Estate Agent back in 1985 and in 1986 I went into Real Estate full time doing appraisals and sales. Now as a Real Estate Broker I focus on the brokerage side of the business as well as the real estate appraisal business.

Valerie: Shortly after high school I started my career in escrow. I worked my way up from Escrow Secretary to Escrow Officer, Escrow Management and worked my way to Escrow Vice President. In 2018 I changed my career and became a licensed Real Estate Agent. Jim and I became sole owners of Tavares Realty. I run the office, property management accounts, and residential sales. My escrow background provided great knowledge towards my real estate career, including what it takes to close a transaction and keep clients informed and happy throughout the process.

2. How did you get interested in the Real Estate field?

Jim: Basically, through my father (Bob Tavares), who is now retired. I started at a very young age helping my father get properties ready for sale. We would paint, repair, clean-up, you name it, I was doing it! By the time I was in college my father started to show me the sales part of Real Estate, including the art of putting a sale together and skills of negotiating in order to have a smooth closing. I was very interested and enjoyed this. I like helping people, interacting with people, and feeling like I'm helping them achieve their goals, especially when they feel they need help or guidance. I truly enjoy the Real Estate Industry.

3. What do you enjoy most about your business?

Jim: I love helping clients achieve their goals either to sell, buy or renting their properties. I've always loved architecture both new and old. Anytime I walk into a house I'm wondering if the floor plan can be improved and if those improvements would increase the enjoyment and value of the home. After all the variations of home improvements and remodeling I've seen over the years I'm always looking forward to the next house to view and imagine the possibilities.

Valerie: I enjoy managing properties for clients. Redoing homes and getting them ready to rent or sale, which includes coordinating repairs, painting, flooring and staging the properties. It is such a great feeling when it all comes together and the client is happy and thankful that I could make all this happen for them.

4. These days what is your biggest challenges?

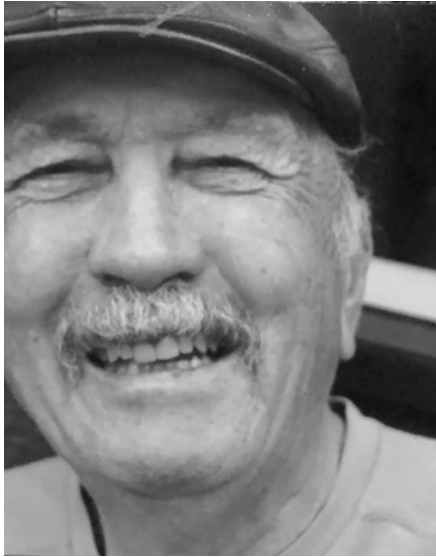

Jim: We are managing people's expectations. There is so much information out there that is skewed one way or the other. So, when they come in to talk to a professional it's our job to explain what is going on in the current market. The Real Estate Market is always a moving target.

Valerie: I would have to agree with Jim. There is so much information that is skewed one way or the other. Keeping the clients informed and up to date so we can guide them to their decisions in this market and time.

5. What do you want your existing and potential customers to know most about your business?

Jim: "SERVICE IS A MUST", we try to cater to our clients and do the best we possibly can for them.

Armand Stephens
June 30, 1939 - January 19, 2023
Fremont

Armand Stephens 83, loving husband and father passed away while knowing he had no regrets.

Born in Bakersfield, CA and growing up modestly in McFarland, Armand moved to Fremont when he accepted a teaching position in industrial arts, his passion. It was there that he met the love of his life, Mary, married, and raised his son Myron.

While in Fremont, Armand taught industrial arts for 35 years and inspired many students and teachers alike. He built a beautiful home in which he and Mary lived for 54 years. He also volunteered his time and skills at Olive Hyde Art Guild and fostered his other passion, sailing. He built 2 of his 5 sailboats, joined the San Jose Sailing Club, and embarked on many sailing adventures.

Armand retired from teaching in 1998. Upon his retirement, Armand and Mary rebuilt their 65 Alberg sail-boat and traveled across the US and abroad, where they explored new places, visited friends and made new ones along the way. They held frequent backyard parties and continued sailing adventures on their own and with San Jose Sailing Club.

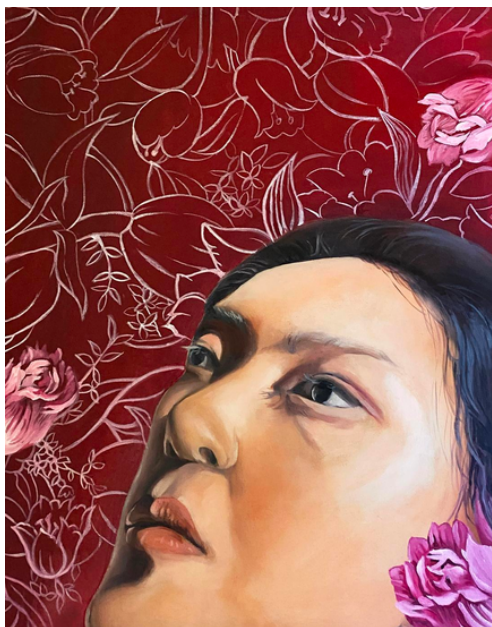

Armand was a warm, kind man, a philanthropist, and true friend to so many, as is evident by his selfless acts giving of his time and ability to create and build anything for friends and strangers alike.

Survived by his wife and soulmate of 57 years, Mary; son Myron (Michelle); and an extended family of relations and friends.

A genuine soul and a life well lived. He will be dearly missed, but not forgotten with the impact he made on so many people's lives.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 1:00pm on June 3, 2023 at The Oakland Yacht Club 1101 Pacific Marina, Alameda, CA

From Alameda County Arts Commission

April is Arts, Culture & Creativity Month!

Communities throughout Alameda County are participating in Arts, Culture and Creativity Month. Many cities have and will make proclamations supporting the arts including Berkeley, Dublin, Emeryville, Hayward, Fremont, Livermore, Oakland, Pleasanton, Union City and others.

There are many ways to get involved. Support and attend arts events presented throughout Alameda County during the month of April. For example, celebrations include the Fremont Creates series of art events throughout Fremont, Art IS Education youth art exhibition at the Hayward City Hall presented by the Hayward Arts Council, teen art exhibition at Livermore Civic Center Library Gallery, and a youth art exhibition presented by Pleasanton Art League.

The Arts Commission's arts education program is CREATE Alameda County. In honor of Arts, Culture and Creativity Month, CREATE Alameda County is distributing 35,000 arts education advocacy activity sheets and paint brushes with partners throughout the County. The sheets have watercolor paint embedded in the paper, so all that is needed is a little water. Partners include Alameda County Library, Alameda County Community Food Bank, Oakland Vet Center, CREATE CA, Californians for the Arts and more.

Olive Hyde Art Guild thanks Julie Gilson, President of Fremont Cultural Arts Council for the gift of 200 watercolor sheet & brush sets to the Guild, most recently shared with special needs adult students at FUSD Noll Center.
