MEMBERS UPDATE

Our heartfelt thanks to all our members who are generously donating their time and dollars to OHAG to support the arts in the community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

I have lived in the Bay Area since 1984, yet I have never taken the cable car in San Francisco, and only recently did I visit the Legion of Honor museum in San Francisco. Sometimes there are wonderful things to explore in our own backyard, yet they remain undiscovered by us. And we seek that kind of joy and wonder in places far away from where we live.

In the spirit of the trend to shop, eat and explore locally, let's also enjoy and support our own local events. e.g. the Mission San Jose September program, the Ohlone Art Walk, and of course our OHAG Holiday for the Arts Gala, Show and Sale!

OHAG members are busy preparing for the Gala, Show and Sale. It takes a lot of hard work and umpteen hours of meetings, calls, emails and physical work to put something together of this scale. As I follow, and sometimes participate in all the back and forth, I can't help but wonder how it was all done before the age of the internet!

All members have been sent two tickets. In the envelope, you will see details of how to pay for them, and for more, by check or online using a credit card. You have the option to donate to OHAG too. Spread the word about our Gala to your friends and family, especially since they can now pay online. Our heartfelt thanks to Lisa Stambaugh who made the online ticketing happen. I am always impressed by the spirit of volunteerism on display by our dedicated members like Lisa. Kudos!

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

Volunteering for the 2023 Holiday Show and Sale

Come join your co-members as we get our signature community and fundraising event ready, delivered, and wrapped up. Many hands make light work – we need lots of volunteers from Monday, October 19th until Wednesday, October 24th.

What's a good fit? Some members feel good doing the same thing each year, others change it up, and some like doing a little something different over the two weeks. Please take a moment to look at the dates and work categories listed and decide where you'd like to help. Some tasks are set up as a half or all-day shift, but you can indicate the hours you're available if you cannot work the whole time. Holiday Show slots on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday are set up in shifts.

Once you decide, it's easy to sign up:

- Email your name, category of work, and day you're available to work:
HolidayVolunteer@OliveHydeArtGuild.org - Kate Mills will contact you to fine tune and confirm a shift. Include a phone number if you prefer phone or texting over email.

OR

- Click on the Sign-Up Genius Links (underlined below) listed below each work category and add your name and email for the shift(s) you can work.

You will receive a reminder about your volunteer activities ahead of time.

53RD ANNUAL TEXTILE EXHIBIT

UPCOMING: SEPTEMBER PROGRAM ART OF THE MISSION SAN JOSE CHURCH

We are fortunate to have a tour and explanation of the art in the Mission San Jose Church. Even though it looks like it was built in the late 1700s, it is less than 50 years old. At that time, the rectory was moved south on Mission Boulevard to Anza so the church could be reconstructed on its original site. What on the inside is from the original church? How was it made to look original? How was the church built originally, and what was saved or recreated in the new one? Some art is very old, and some is not. Jurek Zarzycki, one of our OHAG members and also a Mission docent, will interpret and educate us as we tour through the church. The inside of the church is so artistically interesting.

Date: Thursday, September 21

A successful portrait is almost always a collaboration. The photographer stares at the person being photographed, and they, in turn, stare at the photographer. Both have agreed to linger in this vulnerable space. It's a gift. It's a thrill. My thanks to those who say "yes." - Paul Mueller

OHLONE COLLEGE ART WALK

The Ohlone College Art Walk tour is a self-guided tour of the public art at Ohlone College. It is supported by a navigational website and QR codes that link to audio interviews of students talking about their work. Ceramics Professor Katie Frank worked with students to create the work and with and Multi-Media Professor Isabel Reichert on the website.

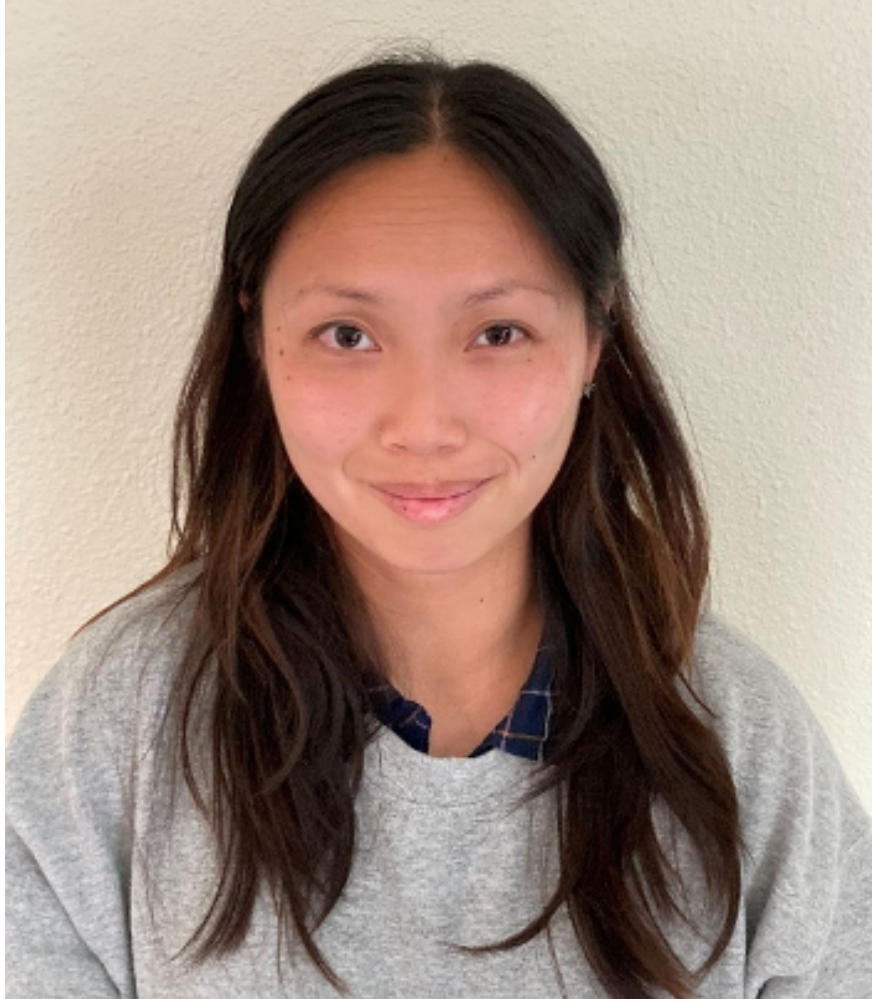

At the end of last semester, the self-guided Art Walk on Ohlone College's Fremont Campus was launched. We hope that you will explore the campus and be delighted by the many site-specific sculptures and installations. Perhaps you'll run into a rat eating corn on the cob when you are looking at the lamp post inspired by Jean-Michel Basquiat or a tree with ceramic birds hanging from it near the Folk Art of India murals. Stop by the ceramic flowers to see flowers in all shapes and colors – even a flower that has grown into a pizza. We hope you are inspired to slow down when you see the large-scale ceramic snail and you take the time to explore the public art made by Ohlone College's Art Students on the Fremont campus.

You'll find a plaque next to most installations with information and a QR code. Scan the QR code: learn more about the work, hear students talk about their work and the inspiration, and view in-progress photograph - <https://ohlonecollegeartwalk.org/index.php>
