PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

The summer is behind us and as the leaves fall in the Bay Area, we know the Holiday Season is upon us. What a wonderful way to start it with our very own Holiday for the Arts. Artists work all year through, and these months are the most crucial for their sales. The Guild is glad to be able to support them. Our Show and Sale totally depends on the creations of our talented artists. This year we are proud to have 70 plus artists, some new, most returning, and our immense gratitude to them for being a part of our show.

The Guild has been hard at work, especially the Holiday Show and Sale Team. There is so much to do and despite personal setbacks, the team keeps going. And we are making constant improvements to our processes such as online ticketing and scheduling, digital payments etc. An artist who takes part in the show told me that OHAG is one of the most organized teams she has ever dealt with. Makes me so proud to hear that!

Our next exhibit promises to be very unique - emotional wellness paintings by San Francisco based artist Ingrid V Wells. A playful take on issues we all deal with in today's complex world.

I hope to see you all at the Gala, Show and Sale. Please pay for your tickets if you have not done so yet, and also remember to bring an appetizer or dessert for the Gala. Our success depends on the contributions of all our members.

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

HOLIDAY SHOW BANNER GOES UP!!!

Thanks to Steve Leitner for volunteering to install permanent screw eye devices for hanging our Holiday Show banner on the brick side of the Mission Building. Drilling 4 holes through the brick, which was like solid rock, was surprisingly a very tedious, time-consuming job which took a good two-plus hours. But finally, success!

Steve has been a good friend to the Guild. He helps Bob Tavares with facility preparations for the Holiday Show, and as leader of NSQ, Newark Saxophone Quartet, has played for Gallery receptions. Huge thanks to Steve for a job well done!

Did you know: The Mona Lisa has her own mailbox in the Louvre because of all the love letters she receives.

OHAG GREATLY ACKNOWLEDGES SOME STARS OF THE HOLIDAY SHOW!

The OHAG Holiday for the Arts 2023 Gala is proud to present this donated mixed media painting by our featured Artist, Dmitry Grudsky. Dmitry was educated in Russia and holds a Master Degree in Fine Arts from the Tashkent Art Institute. His art has been in numerous Exhibitions. UPCOMING: NOVEMBER PROGRAM FIELD TRIP TO THE DE YOUNG OPEN

The
deYoung
Open
2023

The de Young Open 2023 is the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco's second triennial juried community art exhibition, featuring work by artists from the nine Bay Area counties. The show will run from September 30, 2023 through January 7, 2024 at the de Young Museum in Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. Over 800 pieces have been selected for the show from over 7,700 entries. Artworks will be hung salon-style and installed nearly edge to edge and floor to ceiling in the de Young museum's Herbst Exhibition Galleries, maximizing the number of works on view. We are pleased to announce our Olive Hyde Art Guild member artists who will have art in this show. These members are Adriane Dedic, Robyn Leimer, Denise Oyama Miller, and Farshid Namei. Congratulations to all!

Please join us on a field trip to the de Young Museum on Thursday Nov. 30. To make this work we will need drivers. Each driver will be reimbursed for gas, bridge toll and parking. Once we have a better head count and an understanding of who are members we will have the cost but right now we're guessing around $35 per person. This covers transportation and entrance. Once in the museum you will be on your own to figure out lunch and if you want to shop in the gift shop. If we are not able to get enough drivers then we will have to cancel the trip.

Date: Thursday, November 30

Time: Depart Fremont at 10:00 am. Leave de Young at 3:00 pm.

Cost: $35 per person
