PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

I hope you all had a chance to attend our yearly extravaganza, The Gala, or were able to drop by at our Holiday Show and Sale. Many thanks to one and all for your support. We are extremely grateful to all those who made this year's Holiday Show a grand success - and a success it was by all measures. Our dedicated team of volunteers worked really hard. Although there were last minute unforeseen snafus with health and travel issues, as always our members just stepped up to fill the gaps.

As I walked around the Gala, I was touched to hear all the praise about what a lovely event it was - beautiful artwork, laid out methodically, decorated tastefully; amazing food, wine, beer, music and conversations; the mood was festive and it was especially heartwarming to see the young and old all volunteering together - a true community event! We are much obliged to the chairs - Judy Anglin, Kate Mills, Nancy Ruskin and Valerie Tavares for their dedication to this event. We constantly strive to improve and will be looking at how to make it an even better event next year.

We are now excited to bring a delightful exhibit - Emotional Support Paintings by San Francisco artist Ingrid Wells. We hope to see you at the reception on Nov 17th. In addition, we have an exciting Field Trip to the DeYoung Museum on Nov 30th. We hope you will join.

The board will be taking a break in December and we will return recharged in January. I wish all of you the happiest of Holiday Seasons - stay safe, warm and loved.

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

INGRID WELLS

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT PAINTINGS

Ingrid V. Wells earned her MFA from San Francisco Art Institute and her BFA from Arizona State University. Her artwork has been shown in New York at the Untitled Space, PULSE Miami with Treat Gallery, internationally in South Korea at the CICA Museum and online with PxP Contemporary. She enjoys using playful subject matter to address complex topics including women's issues, mental health, joy and being.

She was awarded a Certificate of Honor from the City and County of San Francisco Board of Supervisors in October 2020 for painting uplifting murals in the city's COVID overflow hospital space in the Presidio.

With this collection Ingrid is painting about the journey of radical self-compassion. She is responding to her personal puzzles with the aim of inspiring you to greet your challenges with curiosity. Her paintings serve as a visual respite for joyful rebellion in the face of obstacles.

THE JAN SCHAFIR ART AWARD

We are pleased to announce The Jan Schafir Art Award - an annual scholarship through the Olive Hyde Art Guild. This award will honor Jan's legacy and dedication to arts education by providing financial assistance to students who are passionate about pursuing higher education in the field of art.

The scholarship amount will be a $1000 awarded to a single winner each year between 2024 and 2033. The recipient will be honored at the Scholarship Reception each year. The 2024 Scholarship Reception will be on Friday, May 17th.

Our immense gratitude to the Schafir family for bestowing this generous award and trusting the Guild with its administration.

Janice Kathryn Schafir was born on August 3rd, 1936, and passed away on March 10, 2022 at her home in Fremont—the city where she lived for over sixty years.

With pediatrician Michael Schafir, Jan raised four children. She volunteered for many Fremont organizations including hospice, the Red Cross, Fremont/Niles Rotary and Temple Beth Torah.

But her passion was art. Her own paintings record the natural beauty she found in her backyard and on her extensive travels. She studied with several famous painters and then shared her talent by teaching at Jan's Art Studio, Yosemite, and on cruise ships around the world. Many local artists credit Jan as a primary inspiration and role model. She helped to found what is now the Fremont Art & Wine Festival— just one example of the many ways she helped artists show and promote their artwork in the area. She had a rare kindness, and no canvas is large enough to capture all of her light.

As every painting is unique, so every burgeoning artist that Jan inspired has a story about how she touched their life. But each one of these stories recounts her ever-present smile and her unconditional acceptance of the art they wanted to create. We hope that the Jan Schafir Art Award serves to sustain some of her joyful influence.

THE INCREDIBLE GAEL STEWART

Gael Stewart at her retirement party on Mission Coffee patio, holding a resolution from the City

Olive Hyde Art Guild extends sincere thanks and best wishes to our amazing friend Gael Stewart. For many years, Gael has personally and through Mission Coffee reached out in the community, touched everyone with her warmth and kindness, generously given her time and support to many deserving organizations, events, and special projects. She is truly a gem, one in a million! While we'll all miss Gael and Mission Coffee, she deserves some time to relax, enjoy and find happiness in her new adventure.

"All the very best, Gael, from everyone at OHAG!"
