WELCOME NEW MEMBER

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

I hope you all got a chance to see our current exhibit "Hidden Treasures Local Talent". What variety and impressive creativity! We are so blessed to be amidst such talent and to get these opportunities to view their artwork. You still have time to view it till March 16th.

The board never has a quiet moment and everyone is busy as ever - preparing for the Holiday Show and Sale, for the Scholarships, the Fremont Creates : April Arts Culture and Creativity Month and more! There is plenty of work that happens in the background for all our initiatives. I hope our members will oblige and help us when called upon for these various projects.

We are happy and proud to announce that from our profits for the Holiday Show and Sale, we will be donating $8000 to the City of Fremont for various art initiatives and towards the capital improvements at the Olive Hyde Art Gallery and Mission Room. We have also donated a set of table and chairs for use in the courtyard (bought from the Mission Coffee clearance sale) which matches perfectly with the existing sets we currently have.

We have an exciting new program - Clay Flower Garden by Janine Pitta. Hope you are able to join, learn something new and create a special keepsake! Kudos to our Programs Chairs - Wendy Spellman and Carolyn Hedgecock to come up with such wonderful ideas for programs, like the flower arranging demonstration we had recently by Raquel from Chicky Blooms.

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

UPCOMING: MARCH PROGRAM LEGAL PROTECTION OF YOUR ART

Thursday, March 21, 2024 - 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Mission Room, Olive Hyde Art Center

Are you a working artist navigating the challenges of copyright law and Artificial Intelligence (AI)? The upcoming Olive Hyde Art Guild program on March 21, 2024 will explore issues such as:

- Is there a legal framework for intellectual property governing art used for AI-generated art usage, ownership, rights?
- How do I secure proof as the originator of my art? Should I add watermarks, or do I need to consider new software programs like Nightshade that scramble pigments and other aspects of my work to prevent it being "scraped" without permission?
- A federal judge ruled that copyright is based on people, and therefore AI-generated cannot be copyrighted. Still, how can I copyright and protect my original (non AI) artistry/art? Do I need to consult a legal professional?
- How do we appraise the value of AI-generated art?
- Can AI work to my advantage?
- Is AI easily learned and can it be incorporated in my creativity?
- What can we do to prevent AI misuse and ensure equitable compensation for AI-enhanced work?
- How can I copyright and protect the art and my identity to it after I pass away?

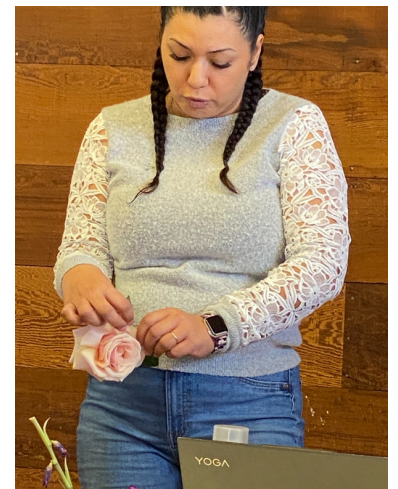

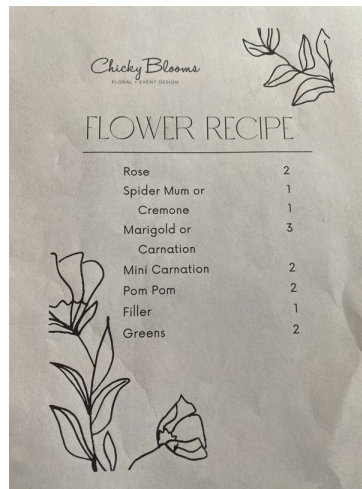

Come assuage your fear of the unknown and learn some practical tips to protect your art and artistry. We have lined up a panel of experts to share their experience and answer your questions.

This topic covers a huge range of information and there may not be time to cover every detail. If you have specific questions or concerns, please send them by email or text to Kate Mills at katemillsohag@gmail.com

JANUARY PROGRAM FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS WITH RAQUEL

Fifteen people, wanting to know what it takes to be successful when arranging flowers, came to the educational and entertaining program. Local business owner, Raquel, of Chicky Blooms Flower Shop first told us how she got into this field, recognizing she wanted to use her creative talents. We learned how to protect, preserve and enhance fresh flowers in a display. We went home with the knowledge to improve our own bouquets.
