PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

The Olive Hyde Art Guild is off to a fantastic start for the 2024-2025 year! Despite a month-long hiatus, many of our dedicated board members remained hard at work.

We're thrilled to announce that the Guild has been awarded a $2,500 grant from the 2024 ARTSFUND Grants Program by the Alameda County Arts Commission. We'll be brainstorming creative ways to use this grant to further our mission in the community.

We're also kicking off the new year with an incredible 3D exhibit, "Women Create Space," showcasing the work of over 40 women artists from the Bay Area. We invite you to experience the exhibition either in person or virtually online and encourage you to attend the reception. I always find it enlightening to engage with the artists at the reception and learn about their creative process and artistic journeys.

In other exciting news, our Website Chair Lisa Stambaugh, alongside Olive Hyde Art Gallery curator Leah Andrews, is leading our expansion into social media with the launch of our official Instagram page and ongoing updates to our Facebook page. Be sure to read more about it in our newsletter and follow us online.

Lastly, the Holiday Show and Sale Ways and Means committee is diligently preparing for a successful Gala and Sale. There's a tremendous amount of behind-the-scenes work involved, from meetings and phone calls to emails, spreadsheets, and schedules. My deepest thanks to the team for their exceptional organization and early start to ensure everything comes together smoothly.

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- The board took the official photo for the 2024-2025 year. Thanks to Jurek Zarzycki for always doing a wonderful job!
- New exhibit has started - "Women Create Space" - looks wonderful. There will also be a Sept 13th artist talk and curatorial tour.
- There were discussions with COF for exhibiting the Scholarship art at the gallery for a few days before the awards are given.
- First program is a field trip to the Triton
- HSS featured artist is photographer Scott Capen
- There was a cashier meeting for HSS and they have vetted and approved 3 Square machines for the sales. A OHAG member has graciously donated funds for the purchase of the 3 Square terminals.
- Renewals are coming in - 2 business members and 26 individuals have not renewed yet.
- We have 2 new business members
- People have asked about online renewal - it is something we have been meaning to do but will tackle it after the HSS
- For the $2500 in the ACAC grant we will form subcommittees next year to discuss ideas on how to use the award
- Scholarship team is working on the form
- There was a discussion with the board if we should pay for a juror for the scholarship
- Possibly display scholarship art in the Mission Room on Thursday, and Friday and setup on Wed. Awards given on Friday 5/16.
- Board discussed ideas of poetry with art - we will figure out how to incorporate spoke word with some of our exhibits

UPCOMING: AUGUST PROGRAM OUTING TO SALON AT THE TRITON

Thursday, August 29, 2024 - 10:30 a.m.
Meet at Olive Hyde Art Center

Please join us for an outing to Salon at the Triton on Thursday August 29. We will be viewing their 2D art competition and exhibition. The exhibit showcases works in five mediums (painting, drawing, printmaking, photography and mixed media) from artists throughout the state.

We will meet at OHAG at 10:30 and carpool to Triton 1505 Warburton Ave., Santa Clara. Please fill out carpool information. If it's not too hot we could bring lunch for a picnic on the grounds at the Triton.

Reserve your spot at : <https://olivehydeartguild.org/news-events/upcoming-programs/>

OHAG GALA TICKETS

In September the OHAG Gala Ticket Committee will mail two OHAG Gala tickets to each Guild member. Payment options will be explained. Every year our Gala is heavily attended and wonderful. Mark your calendar for our 40th Gala on October 18th, 5:30 - 9pm.

Support the Holiday Show with a Special Donation

Member gifts of wine and monetary donations are greatly appreciated!!!

- Help stock the Wine Bar for Gala Night with a wine pledge of one or two bottles, a half case, or full case of wine.
- Monetary donations of any amount are a super means of defraying the many expenses of the Holiday Show, especially for Gala Night food & wine.
- Checks may be mailed to OHAG: Attention Donations, PO Box 3073, Fremont 94539

Super if you can help! Contact Donations Chair, Judy Anglin

Textile Exhibit Reception

HOSPITALITY REQUEST FOR RECEPTIONS

As a member of Olive Hyde Art Guild there is a long-held tradition for members to donate food or help during our much loved receptions for Olive Hyde Art exhibits. There are about 6-10 receptions for the year.

We request hand size appetizers and desserts to serve about 15 people from each member. We will notify you in the newsletter by alphabetical order in groups of 20-30 depending on the size of the event. When it is your turn, please respond to hospitality@olivehydeartguild.org as to what you will bring and if you're able to help in the kitchen.

Please remember this is a volunteer organization and is dependent on members' help. If you would like to assist in any other capacity please contact president@olivehydeartguild.org. As always, your involvement is greatly appreciated!

The next reception is Friday, August 23rd, for the Women Create Space Exhibit from 7-9 pm. IF YOUR LAST NAME BEGINS WITH A-C please bring an appetizer or dessert or help in the kitchen. Since it is a local exhibit, we expect a large gathering. If you are unable to attend, please send a small donation to OHAG, PO Box 3073, Fremont, CA 94539.

Thank you for all your help and generosity.

Lauren Shaver, Judy Cooper, Valerie Dews - Hospitality Co-Chairs.

We are super pleased to inform you that Olive Hyde Art Guild has received a 2024 ARTSFUND Grants Program award of $2500

The Alameda County Arts Commission is dedicated to improving the quality of life in Alameda County by nurturing a thriving environment for the arts; promoting economic opportunities for Alameda County's artists and arts organizations through programs and services such as arts funding, public art, and arts education; encouraging public participation in the arts and actively advocating for the arts. All of the Arts Commission's programs and services are based on the belief that arts, culture and creativity are essential to our successful and thriving community.

We are extremely grateful to Rachel Osajima, the Arts Commission Director and to David Haubert, Alameda County Supervisor for District 1 for granting us this award.

Our deepest gratitude goes to OHAG Publicity Chair Gail Blalock for taking the lead in applying for this grant. The application process for such awards is always detailed and time-consuming, and Gail did an exceptional job in completing it, resulting in our successful grant award.

We welcome ideas from our members on how to constructively use this grant award. Please contact any of the board members if you have any interesting ideas.

Thank you so very much for all of OHAG to support arts, culture and creativity throughout Alameda County.

WE'RE NOW ON FACEBOOK AND INSTAGRAM!

We're excited to announce that OHAG is increasing our online presence through Facebook and Instagram! These platforms will allow us to connect with the Fremont community in new and exciting ways, sharing updates, announcements of exhibits and events, and even some behind-the-scenes glimpses of how the Gallery continues to engage our community.

On Facebook, you can expect to find important announcements, calls for artists, exhibit details, and opportunities to get involved.

Instagram will be our go-to platform for sharing inspiring photos and videos highlighting Guild and Gallery activities and expanding our network of artists and art organizations.

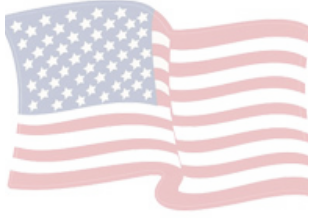

Both channels will help us demonstrate the impact of the support we receive from members and sponsors. We look forward to bringing Guild members and the community closer to our mission of promoting an interest in and appreciation for the visual arts.

We invite you to follow us on both platforms and join the conversation. Your likes, shares, and comments help spread the word about OHAG and Gallery happenings. The Facebook page is managed by our Web Diva, Lisa Stambaugh; our Gallery Curator, Leah Andrews manages Instagram.

Send any ideas or suggestions to Lisa at lisa@collectivediscovery.com or Leah at olivehydecurator@fremont.gov.

Visit our website (<https://OliveHydeArtGuild.org>) to find links to both platforms.

4th of July Parade After-Party

TRI-CITY
NONPROFIT
COALITION

The 4th of July Parade After-Party was a fun event. Pat Finn, Val Dews, & Seema Gupta set up the booth for OHAG. We had arranged for children to make flowers from 4th of July themed cupcake liners. Lot of kids came to the booth, and while they were engaged in the activity, we took the opportunity to inform their parents about Olive Hyde Art Guild and what we do to promote arts in our community. Most people had never heard of OHAG, and many expressed interest in getting involved.

TRI-CITY VOICE News Update!

With the recent retirement of William and Sharon Marshak , here is just a snippet of the changes to catch you all up.

Weeklys, a California Local Media Group is the new parent company of Tri-City Voice. And Weeklys Media Group CEO, Dan Pulcrano is Tri-City Voice Publisher. After a recent visit, I would say the TCV office and staff all look the same! It's a great newspaper with a fresh new look and a slick new logo. Check it out!

With huge thanks to Weeklys Media Group CRO, Daniel Payomo, Jr., we are thrilled that Tri-City Voice will continue as In-Kind Print Media Sponsor for the Holiday Show and also enjoy recognition as a Business Member of Olive Hyde Art Guild.

With best wishes to Bill & Sharon Marshak , and a hearty welcome to Weeklys!
