PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

We kicked off the New Year on a fantastic note with the stunning “Chromatic Rhythms” exhibition by Durba Sen! It was truly heartwarming to see over 150 patrons at the reception, braving the chilly winter evening to celebrate art. The exhibit, bursting with vibrant colors, dynamic shapes, and creativity, brought so much joy to my day - don't miss it! It's on display until March 15th. We also had a fantastic artist talk, drawing an engaged audience of over 15 attendees.

Our field trip to the Bay Area Glass Institute was another hit. It was an inspiring and hands-on creative experience that left everyone in awe of the art of glassblowing. Up next, we have an exciting workshop with current exhibiting artist Durba Sen, where you'll get to explore your creativity and design your own colorful piece. Spots are limited, so be sure to sign up soon!

In other exciting news, Lisa Stambaugh has been instrumental in launching our online membership sign-ups for OHAG, and it's already a success! Many new members have joined through this easy process, and online renewal is coming soon.

It's also that time of year when we start planning for the 2025-2026 OHAG Board. We have several positions open, and this is a fantastic opportunity to get involved, contribute to the arts community, and gain valuable experience in a nonprofit setting. Speaking from personal experience, serving on the board has been incredibly rewarding and has helped me grow in so many ways. If you're interested, please reach out—I promise it will be an enriching and fulfilling journey!

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

UPCOMING: FEBRUARY PROGRAM ALCOHOLIC INK ON TILE WORKSHOP BY DURBA SEN

WHEN: Thursday, FEB 27th, 10 AM - Noon

WHERE: Olive Hyde Art Gallery

Join our workshop with OHAG's current exhibiting artist Durba Sen, where you'll explore the fascinating world of abstract designs using alcohol inks. Participants will begin by practicing techniques on specialized waterproof paper ideal for alcohol ink. Using a variety of colors and isopropyl alcohol, you'll learn to create captivating effects. Once comfortable, you'll craft your own artwork on a ceramic tile under Durba's guidance.

Durba will not only demonstrate techniques but also share insights into her abstract art journey, showcasing her use of vibrant colors to create striking compositions.

Supplies provided include alcohol ink paper, various colors of alcohol inks, brushes, straws for ink-blowing, gloves, isopropyl alcohol, small cups, and ceramic tiles. A $10 materials fee per participant will cover these items. Don't miss this creative and inspiring session!

Link to register and save your spot - we only have 16 spots total

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ROBIN WORTHINGTON

It is sad news to share that Robin Worthington passed away on January 17 at her home in Fremont. She was a very special lady and a dear friend to many in the Guild and Fremont community.

Robin was a distinguished journalist with the San Jose Mercury News and the Argus. She generously helped with OHAG's publicity needs. Of note, Robin wrote an extensive obituary in the SJ Mercury News for Olive Hyde after her death in San Francisco on November 2, 1987 at the age of 101.

Robin was a talented watercolor artist and a longtime member of the Roving Artists. Over the years she participated in many OHAG Holiday Shows and exhibitions at the Olive Hyde Art Gallery.

Robin is survived by her husband John and their five children, Lisa, Steve, Jane, Molly, and Nancy. With sincere condolences to the family, we shall miss her!

A memorial service will be held at St. Joseph's Church on Monday, February 24, at 11:00 AM.
