PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild Members,

As we close out our fiscal year, we end on a high note! Following the success of our Member's Juried Show and Scholarship Exhibit, we're thrilled to present our signature Annual Textile Exhibition. Join us for the reception on June 20th—a celebration of fiber and form. Of the 34 talented artists featured, we're especially proud that 10 are Olive Hyde Art Guild members. Don't miss this vibrant showcase of creativity.

Having been a part of the Guild for over 20 years, I've seen it grow in remarkable ways. From our deepened community engagement to new creative projects, transitioning fully into the digital age, the Guild continues to evolve. Our incredible volunteers make it all possible. In this tech-driven region, it's more important than ever to champion the arts. Around the world, the shift from STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) to STEAM—through the inclusion of the Arts—underscores how creativity fuels imagination, encourages critical thinking, and brings much-needed balance to our lives.

Help us spread the word about this wonderful hidden gem in Fremont by sharing it with your friends, family, colleagues, and social circles. To keep our mission of promoting the arts alive and thriving, we especially welcome new members from the younger generation.

On a personal note, this is a bittersweet moment. After two fulfilling years on the board, it's time for me to step aside. Serving has been an honor, a joy, a learning experience and an enriching journey. I'm delighted to leave the Guild in the capable hands of Scott Capen and his team. I hope you will give them your full support as they carry our mission forward.

I wish you all a beautiful summer. See you at the gallery!

My best regards to all of you,
Manveen Kalyanpur

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Member's Juried Show had a total of 9 sales totaling $5275
- Scholarship Reception went off really well. Great turnout and very well organized by Tanaz Sutaria with help from Dina Rubiolo. It was great to have the student art work up and ready before the reception. Everyone enjoyed the art and talking to the students. It was wonderful to have the ASL interpreter for the student winner from the deaf community. And his speech was truly heartwarming.
- 10 OHAG members are in the Annual Textile Exhibit
- Ways and Means chairs are getting sub-chairs ready for HSS 2025. It always helps to co-chair. So please volunteer and help us out for our signature event
- Project Mini Art - 39 canvases given out in 24 hours of sending mail about it. Amazing response from our artist community! OHAG only provides the canvases. Artists donate their precious time and supplies and their unlimited creativity to create these little gems. And at the HSS, the Mini Art is very popular!
- We have had 45 renewals online so far.
- We received 10 ballots so far. Next year we will send out reminders earlier and possibly extend the date of acceptance.
- Lisa gave a talk about Olive Hyde at the Tri-Cities Women's Club in May and they gave her a donation of 75$ for OHAG
- Idea on how to use the $2500 Grant from ACAC: hold a boxART! competition for local students, and sponsor a vinyl-wrapped box featuring the winning artwork.

MISS OLIVE HYDE: A LEGACY OF ART & COMMUNITY

Miss Olive Hyde A Legacy of Art & Community

Tri-Cities Women's Club

May 20, 2025

At the request of the Tri-Cities Women's Club, Lisa Stambaugh researched and created a presentation about the life of Miss Olive Hyde. Miss Olive was a Fremont resident and philanthropist with a deep appreciation for the arts and education, and of course our wonderful gallery and art center is named after her! The presentation covers in detail her 30-year stay in Fremont, the various buildings and residences she owned, her many community contributions, and her deep influence in the Mission San Jose area and beyond.

You can view the presentation (in PDF format) on our website, on the "Meet Olive Hyde" page under "About". Information sources included the Washington Township Museum of Local History, several websites and books, and an interview with new Guild member Kathleen O'Connor, who was Miss Olive's neighbor many years ago.

MAY WORKSHOP ON NEEDLE-FELTED APPLIQUÉ WITH BETHANY MANN

Eight enthusiastic attendees gathered for a lively mini-workshop on needle-felted applique, led by longtime Bay Area artist and instructor Bethany Mann. With over a decade of experience in fiber arts and book/papercrafts, Bethany guided us through the process of creating charming 4" x 5" felt mini-banners.

Using wool roving and reveling yarn, participants brought their designs to life with rich textures and playful color. Designs featured hearts, flowers, mushrooms, bees, and more! Bethany also introduced a few simple stitches for edging and embellishment, and treated us to her stash of vintage glass baubles and tassels for the finishing touches.

It was a fun and fuzzy way to flex our creative muscles!

HOSPITALITY REQUEST FOR RECEPTIONS

As a member of Olive Hyde Art Guild there is a long-held tradition for members to donate food or help during our much loved receptions for Olive Hyde Art exhibits. There are about 6-10 receptions for the year.

IF YOUR LAST NAME BEGINS WITH C or D, we request you bring hand size appetizers or desserts to serve about 15 people from each member. We are notifying you in the newsletter by alphabetical order in groups of 20-40 depending on the size of the event. Please respond to hospitality@olivehydeartguild.org as to what you will bring and if you're able to help in the kitchen.

Please remember this is a volunteer organization and is dependent on members' help. If you would like to assist in any other capacity please contact president@olivehydeartguild.org. As always, your involvement is greatly appreciated!

The next reception is Friday, June 20, for the Textile Exhibit from 7-9 pm. Please bring an appetizer or dessert or help in the kitchen. If you are unable to attend, please send a small donation to OHAG, PO Box 3073, Fremont, CA 94539.

If you are a sponsor or donor, please disregard.

*Thank you for all your help and generosity.
Lauren Shaver & Judy Cooper, Hospitality Co-Chairs.*
